

Ownership checks and data privacy

Why are no names or addresses displayed when I do an ownership check?

boatfax recognises our customer's desire to maintain privacy and restricts the publication of personal information. It is the policy of boatfax to report information on the status of the boat and not necessarily the people unless criminal action has taken place. Laws in certain territories place additional restrictions on data privacy and boatfax seeks to uphold this. See our Privacy Policy.