Report it

If you have unfortunately suffered the loss of your boat or an item of major equipment, please enter the details FREE of any charge and the process of helping you to locate it will begin. Our missing vessel bulletins are widely circulated and loss alerts are immediately broadcast to the industry.

At least it will help stop someone profiting out of your loss!

All information provided to boatfax is treated in strict confidence. See our Privacy Policy

Update a Loss

If you need to update or add details to a previously submitted Loss entry, enter your log-on details then click on 'My Details' and go to the 'My Boats' tab to access your record. If the item has been recovered, again use this section to advise us.

Discrete Alert

If you think you know of a stolen or missing vessel and you want to discretely advise us please enter the details here.

Note that all information provided will be treated as confidential. We will carry out verification of the information provided, before entering it into the boatfax register.

Search Alert

If you wish to be alerted of any searches carried out against details matching your boat, we can advise this to you by email. For this service click the box when registering your boat details with boatfax, or if you have already registered, log in and click on 'My Details' to update your preferences.
