

Advertising

I would like to advertise on the boatfax website. How do I do this?

boatfax welcomes marine industry advertising and provides a number of high-visibility / high-traffic advertising areas.

Under the bonnet boatfax includes a powerful advertising engine, providing full campaign management and reporting.

- Campaign-specific performance reports for advertisers
- Advertising clients can gain direct access to ad campaign reporting
- Track and compare the performance of ad campaigns
- Data exported for analysis
- Ad campaign goals, start and end dates, performance targets based on clicks, impressions, or conversion

Please contact us and we will immediately get back to you to discuss your campaign requirements, options and if required, help you design and submit content.
